My love,
Love has no desire but to fulfill itself.
But if you love and must needs have desires, let these be your desires:
To melt and be like a running brook that sings its melody into the night.
To know the pain of too much tenderness.
To be wounded by your own understanding of love;
To bleed willingly and joyfully.
To wake at dawn with a winged heart and give thanks for another day of loving . . .
All things do turn out for the good.
